All assignments will be submitted through dropbox.com. I have created a folder for each of you according to your last name. Each of your folders will contain two other folders called Individual Deliverables and Collaborative Deliverables respectively. Drop assignments in the appropriate folders. You will need to create an account at dropbox.com in order to submit your assignments. This account is free.

Graduate Paper

Graduate students are required to write a 10-page synthesis paper about the four articles listed below. They should plan to meet with the instructor once a month to discuss each article. Given full-time schedules, this meeting will likely take place on Saturday mornings. Articles are available on Blackboard.

Bekins, Linn K., and Williams, Sean D. (2006). Positioning technical communication for the creative economy. Technical Communication, 53(3): 287–295.

Hart Davidson, William. (2001). The core competencies of technical communication. Technical Communication, 48(2): 145–155.

Johnson-Eilola, Johndan. (1996). Relocating the value of work: Technical communication in a post-industrial age. Technical Communication Quarterly, 5(3): 245–270.

Wick, Corey. (2000). Knowledge management and leadership opportunities for technical communicators. Technical Communication, #(4): 515–529.
